Dear ZTFE members and friends

2011 is a land mark year for the Zoroastrians in the United Kingdom as it is the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary year of the establishment of the national faith association, as the fore-runner of the Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe of today. We go back in history to August 1861 when Seth Muncherji Hormasji Cama appealed to Dadabhai Naoroji and others to set up a religious fund to benefit Zoroastrians in Europe.

Although the first recorded arrival of a Zoroastrian Seth Rustom Maneck Seth was in 1724, the numbers of Zoroastrians in the UK was always extremely small. It is estimated that in 1861 there were around 50 Zoroastrians and by the end of the Second World War, there were no more than some 200. They were mainly traders spearheaded by the Cama, Tata and Wadia families and some other professionals. It is only in the last fifty years or so that our members dramatically increased with the arrival of Zoroastrians from India and Pakistan followed by those from East Africa, Aden and other British Colonies and later in 1979 from Iran.

Today, the Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe (ZTFE) remains the oldest established religious voluntary organisation in the UK of South Asian origin. Zoroastrians are recognised as one of the nine world faith communities in the UK, although we are the smallest. ZTFE being the premier Zoroastrian organisation represents the interest of the Zoroastrian community with the UK Government, interfaith, religious and educational institutions. It continues to serve the community in Europe both at national and international levels from the secretariat at the magnificent Grade II* listed art-deco Zoroastrian Centre in the London Borough of Harrow.

Our Association today is sound financially, materially and spiritually, thanks to the foresight and efforts of the Managing Committee and office bearers along with our Ervad Sahebs and our dedicated team of volunteers. On your behalf, I extend my thanks to all of them, past and present, and also to our patrons, especially the Zartoshty Brothers for their generosity and support.

Lastly, it is my great pleasure in welcoming you all today to the Zartoshty Brothers Hall for our 150th Anniversary Gala Banquet that kicks off the sesquicentennial celebrations of our Association.

Khshnaothra Ahurahe Mazdão!

Association's Name Changes

22 September 1861	Established: Religious Funds of The Zarathushtrians of Europe
25 September 1889	Amalgamated: Charitable Fund of The Zoroastrians of Europe
14 August 1909	Incorporated: The Incorporated Parsee Association of Europe
08 August 1971	Zoroastrian Association of Europe (Incorporated)
01 February 1979	Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe (Incorporated)

The President, Trustees, Managing Committee Members, office bearers and the staff at the Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe Incorporated are truly indebted to the Zartoshty Brothers and members of their families for their relentless support to the Association. Their continued interest in the welfare of the Zoroastrian Community in the United Kingdom and Europe and indeed Zoroastrian communities throughout the World is most admirable. Their generosity and munificent donations have surpassed the normal duty of a Zoroastrian for Charity.

The continuous support and benevolence of the Zartoshty Brothers and their families are exemplary in the history of the Association. Their munificent donations to the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) of the University of London has been acknowledged and honoured by them with the inclusion of the names of the Zartoshty Brothers on the Donor Board displayed in the foyer-entrance of the SOAS building. The recent confirmation of £1 million bequest from the MHBKHF Trust Funds connected to the late Prof. Mary Boyce, have ensured the continuity of the advancement of the study and understanding of Zoroastrianism at SOAS in perpetuity. These endowments have been designed “the Zartoshty Professorship” in Zoroastrianism in the Department of the Study of Religions at SOAS.

The Zartoshty Brothers and their family members’ patronage of the 8th World Zoroastrian Congress that was held in 2005 at the Zoroastrian Centre and the Zartoshty Brothers Hall and their overall benevolence and support to ZTFE is indeed commendable.

Their generosity and munificent donations have surpassed the normal duty of a Zoroastrian for charity, for which the President, Trustees, Managing Committee Members, Office bearers and the staff and indeed all members are indebted to the Zartoshty Brothers and their families.

On behalf of all Zoroastrians of UK and Europe, we salute the Zartoshty Brothers for the munificent benevolence at all times.

May Ahura Mazda bless them and their families with all good fortune, health, wealth, long lives and prosperity. Amen.

ZOROASTRIAN TRUST FUNDS OF EUROPE INCORPORATED UNITED KINGDOM'S OLDEST RELIGIOUS VOLUNTARY ORGANISATION OF SOUTH ASIAN ORIGIN CELEBRATES ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS

1861 – 2011

Zoroastrians are known to have settled in the United Kingdom for the last two centuries and as such are the one of the oldest established Zoroastrian community outside of the Indian Sub-Continent and Iran. Indeed, the first recorded arrival of a Parsee Zoroastrian named Navroji Rustomji Seth was in 1724.

1861: ASSOCIATION ESTABLISHED

It all started 150 years ago, when Seth Muncherji Hormusji Cama, senior partner of Messers Cama & Company, the first Indian Mercantile Firm in the City of London, wrote a letter in Gujarati dated 15th August 1861 proposing to establish a religious fund to benefit the Zoroastrians in Europe. The letter was hand delivered to other like minded Zoroastrians, including Dr Dadabhai Naoroji, who found the proposal appealing as it would enable them not only to perform good deeds but also to live in harmony with one another in prosperous and adverse times. The first meeting was held on 22nd September 1861 at Mr Cama's residence at 24 Devonshire Terrace, London W2 3DP, a five minute's walking distance from London Paddington Station. Following two further meetings on 6th October and 13th October 1861, a constitution was formulated in Gujarati establishing the 'Europenā Zarhostioñu Dharamñu Khatu', translated in English 'Religious Fund of the Zarathustrians of Europe', with headquarters in London.

Jehangirji Burjorji	Secretary
Dr Burjorji Dorabji	Managing Committee Member
Dhunjibhai Khurshedji Ratnagar	Managing Committee Member

Ardeshirji Khurshedji Wadia JP FRS

Our Association was established when there were only around 50 Zoroastrians in the United Kingdom. The famous ship builder and engineer Ardeshirji Khurshedji Wadia JP FRS, who in 1841 was the first Indian to be admitted into the fellowship of the Royal Society, was one of the earliest Patrons and founder of our Association.

Birth of the Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe

Monday 15th August 2011 is the 150th Anniversary of Seth Muncherji Hormusji Cama's letter to establish an Anjuman. A small hand-written letter in Gujarati, 9 inches by 7 inches in size, dated 15th August 1861 is the oldest document in the archives of the Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe.

To the Zoroastrians of England

Sirs,

Our people go abroad to several countries for business. When there, each person could give according to his means for religious and charitable purposes. This would enable them not only to perform good deeds but also to live in harmony with one another in good and bad times. Currently by the grace of God, we are about 50 including students who come here for higher studies and our number is likely to increase year by year. For this reason, it is essential to consider this matter urgently.

If this idea appeals to you, we can arrange to meet at some place, listen to one another's views and reach a satisfactory conclusion".

Signed

Muncherji Hormusji Cama

This letter was delivered to Dr Dadabhai Naoroji who replied dated 17th August:

The proposal as contained in Mr Muncherji's letter is very good. If others are agreeable, we can meet at a place and discuss the matter further."

Signed

Dadabhai Naoroji

Others seated on the top table are Sir Mancherjee Merwanjee Bhownagree (President of ZTFE 1908 to 1933), Honorary Secretary N J Mulla, Allan Octavian Hume (Father of the Indian National Congress and Guest of Honour, seated on the left of Dr Dadabhai Naoroji), Persian Charge D' Affairs in Great Britain and leaders of the Indian National Congress.

Another of the earliest Patrons and founder of our Association was Dr. Dadabhai Naoroji, one of the outstanding figures in the political history of India who in 1892 was the first Indian to be elected as a Member of Parliament in the United Kingdom. The elders of those early pioneering days must have visualised a growing community of Zoroastrians settling down in the U.K. for reasons of commerce, education, professional pursuit, government and Indian Civil Service, medical treatment, travel and cultural contacts. One of the first steps taken by our Association in 1863 was the acquisition of an exclusive burial ground for Zoroastrians at Brookwood Cemetery in Surrey. Since 1863, our cemetery grounds at Brookwood remain in the service to our community to this day. Indeed, one of the important objectives contained in the Memorandum and Articles of our present Association is the provision of a burial ground for persons of the Zoroastrian faith, and the upkeep and maintenance of such grounds.

1929: FIRST ZOROASTRIAN HOUSE PURCHASED

The Zoroastrian House at 11 Russell Road, Kensington.
Purchased in 1929 - Sold in 1968

The Association forged ahead and grew in stature. After the World War I it received a large donation from Mr Edulji Jamshetji Khory, which was the catalyst to acquire a Zoroastrian House. A former Boarding House for students at 168, Cromwell Road, Kensington, London SW5, was leased and turned into a Communal House. In 1929 the Zoroastrian House at 11, Russell Road, Kensington Olympia, London W14 8JA, was purchased for £7,500, thanks to a magnificent donation of £6,000 from Sir Dhunjibhoy Bomanji Kt and Lady Frainy Bomanji towards the purchase. The first Zoroastrian House was thus established providing limited facilities for performing religious ceremonies besides holding the customary social and cultural activities. With immigration from India, Pakistan, Aden and East Africa in the 1960's, the Zoroastrian House at Russell Road was fast becoming inadequate to house and cater for the needs and demands of both the increasing membership and demands of the growing community.

The Association received a large donation from Mr Khodad Rustom Mehrabi, Sir Cowasji Jehangir Bart and Lady Hirabai Cowasjee Jehangir MBE JP, which was the catalyst to commence looking for larger premises. The Zoroastrian House on 11, Russell Road was sold in 1968. A much larger Zoroastrian House at 88, Compayne Gardens, West Hampstead, London NW6 3RU, was purchased in 1969 for £32,500. A further £12,500 was spent on refurbishing the property. It was formally opened on 6th September 1969 by the then Chairman of the Bombay Parsee Panchayet Mr Nadirshaw Mulla. The central feature of the “new” Zoroastrian House was the Setayesh Gāh fully donated and set up by our Dasturji Dr. Sohrabji and Dr. Mrs. Shirinbanoo Kutar.

1983: ZOROASTRIAN HOUSE EXTENDED

Arbab Rustam Guiv and Madam Guiv

With further influx of Zoroastrians in the 1970's, the facilities at Zoroastrian House began to be stretched. The year 1979 witnessed an increase of Zoroastrians coming into the U.K., this time from Iran in the aftermath of the revolution there. With a donation of £50,000 from Arbab Rustam Guiv and Madam Guiv, and another £50,000 from Mobeds Mehraban and Faredoon Zartoshty brothers and their families, combined with other donations, resources and support, an Extension to the Zoroastrian House was built and opened on 21st March 1983, providing new larger Assembly and Dining Halls.

Very soon after the Extension, the higher attendances at social, cultural and religious functions at Zoroastrian House saw the need for moving “House” yet again to much larger premises with an Assembly Hall and an Atash Dadgah. To this purpose a “New Premises Fund” was set up in 1992 in search of a larger premises, or land on which to build one to suit our needs, with an attached place of worship. In September 1993, the Committee distributed a booklet entitled “The Unimpeded March of the Zoroastrian Spirit into the 21st Century” outlining the background, strategy and funding requirements for the “New Premises Project”.

2000: ZOROASTRIAN CENTRE PURCHASED

Over the years a positive response to the fund raising appeals and activities enabled the Association to purchase an art deco Grade II* listed former Cinema House with an attached car park at 440, Alexandra Avenue, Harrow HA2 9TL in September 2000 for £1.35 million, which is presently our new “Zoroastrian Centre”. The main benefactors for this purchase were Mobeds Faridoon and Mehraban Zartoshty Brothers and the Association has aptly named the Assembly Hall at the new Zoroastrian Centre as the “Zartoshty Brothers Hall”, the venue for the ZTFE 150th Anniversary Banquet today.

The Association set up a sub-committee led by our in-house architect Shahrokh Shahrokh and engaged qualified professionals approved by English Heritage to overcome the planning hurdles associated with the restrictions for the refurbishment of the Grade II* Listed building. The final and formal consents of the Local Authority were granted in August 2004 permitting the First Phase of works for the refurbishment of the property to commence. This coincided with the sale in December 2004 of the “Zoroastrian House” at 88 Compayne Gardens, West Hampstead. On the advice of the Finance Committee the Managing Committee sanctioned 50% of the net proceeds to be earmarked as corpus funds to be utilised for the running and maintenance of the Zoroastrian Centre.

2005: ZOROASTRIAN CENTRE INAUGURATED

Mobed Mehraban Zartoshty inaugurates the Zoroastrian Centre in the Zartoshty Brothers hall on the 24th June 2005 at the Eight World Zoroastrian Congress hosted by the Association

With the sale of the Zoroastrian House in West Hampstead in December 2004, limited activities were facilitated at the Zoroastrian Centre side by side with the progress for its refurbishment.

Extensive works to the Zartoshty Brothers Hall with its magnificent art-deco, the Upper Balcony with fixed seating and the new ‘Setayesh Gah’ with the installation of a lift / elevator for easy access were completed. The Zoroastrian Centre was formally inaugurated on Friday 24th June 2005 by Mobed Mehraban Zartoshty on the occasion of the Eighth World Zoroastrian Congress that was hosted by the Association.

The Harrow Heritage Trust has recognised the painstaking restoration of the art-deco, Grade II* listed building by acknowledging the efforts of the Association, “that served to protect, preserve, restore and improve the land and building of beauty and historical interest”. The Trust has honoured the Association with the placing of a commemorative plaque at the entrance of the Zoroastrian Centre with the citation: “This art deco Cinema Building was designed in 1936 by F E Bromige and built by T F Nash Ltd. At first it was the Grosvenor, then in 1938 The Odeon, in 1950 the Gaumont, in 1964 the Odeon and in 1981 The Ace. From 1990 it was a Bar, the CineBar experience. It was acquired by the Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe in 2000. It was restored and refurbished into a Zoroastrian Community Centre and place of worship and is its European Centre”.

Zoroastrian Centre is designated as one of the heritage sites in London for public access on one “open day” that is declared annually by the Open House London organisation.

ZOROASTRIAN MEMBERS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM PARLIAMENT

Dr Dadabhai Naoroji MP 1892-1895

We are proud of the fact that the first three Asian Members elected to the United Kingdom Parliament were all members and patrons of our Association. The first ever Asian Member of Parliament was one of our earliest patrons and founder Dr Dadabhai Naoroji, elected to the House of Commons in 1892 to represent the constituency of Central Finsbury for the Liberal Party and he remained a Member of Parliament till 1895. Dr Dadabhai Naoroji was also the Association’s Second President from 1863 to 1908. The second Asian Member of Parliament was Sir Mancherjee Merwanjee Bhownagree an outward looking Organisation. Zoroastrians are now formally represented at national and international levels. Since 1994, our Presidents and officials have formally met Her Majesty The Queen along with other members of the Royal Family, quite regularly, that has included being invited to Buckingham Palace.

Prince Edward and Sophie Countess of Wessex at the Zoroastrian service to mark the Golden Jubilee of Her Majesty The Queen at The Zoroastrian Centre

Our representatives also have the opportunity of meeting Government Ministers at official engagements. The Zoroastrian Service of Thanksgiving to mark the Golden Jubilee of Her Majesty The Queen held at our Zoroastrian Centre on 26th June 2002 was attended by HRH Prince Edward and Sophie Countess of Wessex.

The Zoroastrian Community in the UK feels honoured that the Lord Chamberlain was commanded by Her Majesty The Queen to invite the current President of the Association to the Palace of Holy Roodhouse, Edinburgh, to mark the first ever official Papal Visit to the UK by His Holiness The Pope Benedict XVI on 16th September 2010, and also for 'wedding of the century' – the Marriage of HRH Prince William of Wales KG with Miss Catherine Middleton at Westminster Abbey on 29th April 2011.

The Association is a member of the Inter Faith Network for the United Kingdom, Faith Forums for London and several local inter faith organisations including the Harrow InterFaith Council, which had its 25th Anniversary celebration on 29th March 2009 in the Zartoshty Brothers Hall. The Association has regularly facilitates inter faith visitors to the Zoroastrian Centre from various inter faith groups and sends representatives to national, regional and local inter faith events. Our initiative for inter-religious dialogues have resulted in our senior Mobed invited to meet His Holiness the Pope at the Vatican. Recently Lord Karan F Bilimoria had the honour of an audience with the Pope at the Vatican. Our Presidents are regularly invited to Lambeth Palace by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. In turn Senior Bishops of the Church of England and Leaders of other faith communities visit the Zoroastrian Centre. The Association was honoured by a landmark and historic visit to the Zoroastrian Centre on 1st October 2010 by the Most Reverend and Right Honourable Dr Rowan Williams, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury accompanied by officials from the Lambeth Palace. It was the first ever official visit by the Archbishop of Canterbury and Head of the Worldwide Anglican Communion to a Zoroastrian place of worship in the history of our two religions – Zoroastrianism and Christianity. His Grace the Lord Archbishop's visit and his address to our members were memorable.

Zoroastrians in the United Kingdom have become national leaders in commerce and business as well as in various professions and have been bestowed with national awards and honours.

Our annual Navroze celebrations, Mukta prayers, monthly Parabh Jashans and Gahambar are performed with great religious sincerity and are attended with zeal and enthusiasm in large numbers. In 2005, the Association members elected its first President that was born in the UK.

During a lecture delivered by the renowned authority on Zoroastrian history Professor John Hinnells at Zoroastrian Centre, he referred to the "change" that has been brought about by the Association over the last few years for the good of the Zoroastrian community in the UK.

LIBRARY & ACADEMIC LINKS

One of the finest collections of books and literature pertaining to Zoroastrian religion and culture are housed in our Association's Reference Library that was established in 1987 at Zoroastrian House with a munificent donation from Mrs Maki Rusi Edulji. The Library incorporated the Bhownagree collection of books and documents of his Parliamentary days. The Library also holds the Association's records from Day One including the letter written by Seth Muncherji Hormusji Cama in Gujarati dated 15th August 1861, proposing to establish a religious fund to benefit the Zoroastrians of Europe. The vast volume of books held by the Association with its spread in wealth of knowledge is indeed an envy of Zoroastrians worldwide as demonstrated by invitations to exhibit bookstalls at international Congresses.

The Association is a member of the Religious Education Council of England and Wales and of Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education (SACRE) in the London Borough of Harrow. It has also forged links with academic Institutions for the learning of Zoroastrianism including the Universities of Cambridge, Oxford, Manchester and London, Colleges and numerous other Institutions like The British Library, The British Museum, School of Oriental and African Studies, (SOAS), The Ancient India and Iran Trust, The Iran Heritage Foundation amongst others. The Association has also forged close liaison with renowned Institutions of Zoroastrian teaching abroad. The Association annually facilitates visits at the Zoroastrian

OUR SPECIAL LINKS WITH THE SCHOOL OF ORIENTAL & AFRICAN STUDIES

Thanks to the benevolence of Mobed Mehraban and his brother Late Mobed Faridoon Zartoshty and their families and also for a recent generous bequest from the estates of late Professor Mary Boyce that a Chair in Zoroastrian Studies has now been established in perpetuity at SOAS, a most befitting gift celebrating ZTFE’s 150 years of community services. WORLD ZOROASTRIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (UK)

The Association’s Founder President Seth Muncherji Hormusji Cama together with Dr Dadabhai Naoroji and Kharshedji Rustomji Cama, of the K R Cama Oriental Institute fame, set sail for the United Kingdom on 27th June 1855, to establish the first Indian mercantile firm in the City of London, Messers Cama & Company. Over the last one hundred and fifty years Zoroastrian entrepreneurship has been on the increase with successful enterprises in business, commerce, manufacture, banking and service industries, catering and in most of the professions.

Many Zoroastrians have picked up prestigious and national awards for the contributions towards the economic growth in the United Kingdom. The Association inaugurated the UK Chapter of the Zoroastrian Chamber of Commerce under the Worldwide Zoroastrian initiative. The WZCC (UK) regularly organises business meets to promote Zoroastrian entrepreneur, businesses and professional establishments and encourage networking for mutual gain.

Members of the WZCC Committee

YOUNG ZOROASTRIANS

It is important that the “torch” is passed on to the future generation so that our Association continues to serve the community and the nation for the next one hundred and fifty years. The Young Zoroastrian (YZ) group was initially established in 1974. The group’s activities are independently organised and managed

Jamshedji Navroze Banquet 21st March 1960 at St Ermin's Hotel, St James's Park, London

Tina Mistry the YZ Chair is introduced to his Holiness the Pope

by the YZ Committee with a Chairperson. The YZs following their pilgrimage to the villages of Gujarat in 1988, with Mr Khojeste Mistree of Zoroastrian Studies, helped establish a fund where money can be donated for the Poor People Project. In 1994 it organised a pilgrimage to Iran with Mr Khojeste Mistree of Zoroastrian Studies as their tour guide. YZs were responsible for the staging of the extremely successful Second World Zoroastrian Youth Congress in 1997 in London under the auspices of our Association. The YZs represented the Zoroastrians of the UK at national inter faith events to mark the Millennium in 2000 and the Golden Jubilee of Her Majesty The Queen. The current YZ Chair has also been introduced to Her Majesty the Queen and HRH the Prince of Wales and was invited to meet His Holiness the Pope at the Vatican. An enviable example is that of the current President of the Association who started off as a member of the YZ Team of the past.

eXTRA YOUNG ZOROASTRIANS & CHILDREN'S EDUCATIONAL FUN CLUB

The Association ensures that religious education is imparted to the eXtra Young Zoroastrians (XYZ) through the Children's Educational Fun Club which conducts monthly religious classes at the Zoroastrian Centre. Zoroastrianism is taught in a fun way but to a structured syllabus by volunteer teachers who are part of the YZs. The XYZs were filmed by BBC Ceebies for 'Lets Celebrate NoRuz' broadcasted on Jamsheedi NoRuz, 21st March 2010. The Most Reverend and Right Honourable Dr Rowan Williams, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, during the visit on 1st October 2010, was delighted to witness the memorable performance by the XYZs of 'Sheer-e Shireen', 'The Sweetened Milk', as it aptly showed the Association actively promoting idea of social cohesion and harmony in a multi faith society to their very young.

The XYZ's celebrating NoRuz with the Hafsina table

POPULATION COUNT

During the 1990s the Association played an active role along with other religious representatives on the Census Panel for a population count with a questionnaire for religious affiliation that was then included in the official Census Form. Zoroastrians being in the smallest of minorities were "lumped" along with "other religions" with Jains and Bahais, with the box to identify their religious affiliation. The Census of 2001 returned a figure of 3738 Zoroastrians in England and Wales only. The Census report confirmed that substantial majority of "other religions" did not identify their religious affiliations, indicating that many of those could well be Zoroastrians. ZTFE looks forward to the results coming out for the national census held on 27th March 2011.

For the purposes of estimating our population, it is stipulated that there are at least 5,000 Zoroastrians residing in and around London and the “Home” Counties. There are pockets of Zoroastrian Communities ranging from between 50 to 80 residing in the large cities of U.K., i.e. Birmingham, Manchester and Leicester with smaller numbers scattered throughout the U.K. Zoroastrians also reside in most of the major European Cities and are well established in Paris as well as around Frankfurt and Hamburg in Germany. An estimate of the total number of Zoroastrians in the U.K. and Western Europe is now put at around 6,000.

The multicultural fabric of the British society has been a welcoming feature to the Zoroastrian Community, whose trait for integration with retention of identity has proved beneficial in settling down to a new way of life. In turn the Zoroastrians have sweetened the milk of Britain.

To this very day the Association has, as over the past 150 years, responded to calls of backing to and co-operation with Zoroastrians living in Europe. Indeed our very First Patrons in 1861 foresaw this need and aptly established an Institution for “Zoroastrians of Europe”. The Association is even more appropriate in today’s term with the European Union that has now been firmly established. One of its members Jehangir Sarosh was on 1st January 2009 elected as resident Emeritus of Religions for Peace – Europe and is also on the European Council of Religious Leaders. As member of the Religious Education Council, various school children regularly visit the Zoroastrian Centre for greater understanding of the Zoroastrian religion and their way of living.

OUR GRATITUDE

This is perhaps not the place to enumerate the honourable achievements of so many of our Zoroastrians who contributed great and small to the fortunes of the Association. We must, however, salute the stalwarts of yesteryears. Zoroastrians have been known for their philanthropic way of life. They have maintained this tradition to this day and we must show our gratitude to all those individuals and organisations who come forward to provide voluntary patronage service and other forms of assistance for the betterment of the Zoroastrian Community in U.K. and Europe.

Image of the Inscription on the Presidents Medal

‘Europenā Zarthostioñu Dharamñu Khatu’, translated in English ‘Religious Fund of the Zarathustrians of Europe’, with headquarters in London was established in 1861. On 25th September 1889 it was renamed as the “Charitable Fund of the Zoroastrians of Europe”. It was incorporated as a Company Limited by guarantee on 14th May 1909 in the name of “The Incorporated Parsee Association of Europe”. A Special General Meeting of members was called on 8th August 1971 and a resolution passed to change the name to “Zoroastrian Association of Europe (Incorporated)”. Since 1st February 1979, a new company with the present name of “Zoroastrian Trust Funds of Europe, Incorporated” has been set up and registered as a non-profit making charity organisation.

Dasturji (Dr.) Maneckji Nusservanji Dhalla

HONORARY MEMBERS OF ZOROASTRIAN TRUST FUNDS OF EUROPE (INC)

In 1937 Dasturji (Dr) Maneckji Nusservanji Dhalla was the first Zoroastrian elected as “Honorary Member” of our Association. In recent times the following Zoroastrians were elected as “Honorary Members” of ZTFE, for their meritorious services to the community in religious, social, economic and intellectual advancement of the community or when public services and achievements may have exceptional credit to the community:

Recent Honorary members: Kersey Jasavala, Ervad Jal Karkaria, Ervad Rustom Bhedwar, Shahrokh Shahrokh, Noshir Avari with wife Kumi, Dr Firoze Munshi and wife Kerman, Khorshed Sodhi and husband Dr. Mahinder Sodhi, Jehangir Sarosh and wife Irma

Arbab Rustom Guiv, Mobed Faridoon Zartoshty, Mobed Mehraban Zartoshty, Dasturji Dr Sorabji Kutar, Dr Shrinbanoo Kutar, Shahrokh Shahrokh, Kersey Jasavala, Ervad Jal Karkaria, Ervad Rustom Bhedwar, Noshir Avari, Dr Firoze Munshi, Khorshed Sodhi and Jehangir Sarosh.

The Association deeply appreciates the selfless dedication of these Zoroastrians in the Service of our Community.

HONOURED FRIENDS OF ZOROASTRIAN TRUST FUNDS OF EUROPE (INC)

The following persons are conferred to the title of “Honoured Friend” of ZTFE for their meritorious services to the Zoroastrian Community in the United Kingdom in religious, social economic or intellectual advancement of the community or where public services and achievements may have reflected exceptional credit in the community:

Prof.

Professor Mary Boyce

Mary

Prof. John Hinnells

Boyce

Prof. David Bivar

(posthumously awarded), Prof. John Hinnells, Prof. David Bivar

The Association is greatly indebted to these “Honoured Friends” for their selfless and life long dedication to the authoritative promulgation of the study of Zoroastrianism that influenced the understanding of the tenets and practices of our religion worldwide.

DIRECTORY OF ZOROASTRIANS OF UK & EUROPE

The need for publishing comprehensive Directories of Zoroastrians has been emphasised time and time again. Numerous Zoroastrian Directories are now being published in various diasporas throughout the world and also published in various parts of India and Pakistan. The first seven Editions of our ZTFE Directory were launched every three years in 1991, 1994, 1997, 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2011 respectively. Every edition is enlarged from the previous edition with an increase in numbers. The Association believes the Directory is a vital and valuable link to all Zoroastrians across the European Continent and indeed, throughout the World. Zoroastrians will come closer together, will be easily accessible to each other, will help renew acquaintances and make new ones.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Association is honoured to be the oldest religious charity and voluntary organisation in the United Kingdom of South Asian Origin. It recognises that it would not be in this position if it was not for its numerous volunteers past and present who have served the community and the Big Society for the last one and hundred and fifty years. The Association salutes all!

The Association is also mindful that it in 1861 it started humbly and today it has the freehold of the burial grounds at Brookwood Cemetery in Surrey and also the freehold of the magnificent Grade II* listed 1000 seat capacity Art Deco Zoroastrian Centre in the London Borough of Harrow, the most religiously diverse borough in the UK. This would not have been achieved with the all the donors past and present, especially the Zarthoshty Brothers for their generosity.

We pray to Ahura Mazda to ensure that our Association continues to be blessed by receiving large donations regularly and dedicated team of volunteers always coming forward to serve the community and the nation. Without the continued support of the volunteers and generous donors, our Association would have found it challenging to continue the Unimpeded March of the Zoroastrian Sprit into the 21st Century.

“Atha jamyāt yatha āfrīnāmī”!

“So may it be!”

Spice Magic

“An inspirational session sharing the importance of passion, networking and kindness to business success”

Celebrated motivational speaker and Indian cookery specialist, Pinky Lilani OBE, welcomes you to sample her unique style first hand.

Spice Magic provides an opportunity for business teams to:

- * relax and bond in an informal setting, whilst learning to cook Indian food
- * be inspired at the work place with a motivational talk and cookery demonstration

“With all the pressures on companies and people today it is difficult to cut through the noise and find something that is truly inspirational and different. Pinky is truly different. She brings enthusiasm and ruthless optimism to the team events she runs. Although in many ways very understated, she is hugely impactful and really makes people think about themselves, how they are motivated and how they can absolutely improve themselves.”

Phil Smith, CEO Cisco UK and Ireland

“Pinky is priceless. She embraces all that is positive in the human spirit and is infectious in her enthusiasm for life and for making a difference to others. You never say no to Pinky!!!”

Cafe Spice Namaste

Still a winner after all these years
- Hardens 2011

Namaste! More than a restaurant, a culinary institution, after 16 vibrant years, Cyrus & Pervin Todiwala's bastion of Indian cuisine enjoys the distinction of being one of the UK's Top 100 restaurants, cited by the 2010 National Restaurant Awards.

Our elaborate and extensive menu incorporates the best of Indian cuisine with specialities and influences from all over Asia, drawing on a rich Parsee heritage. Winner of the 2011 Corporation of London Sustainable Food Award, we also cater for outdoor events and weddings and are the preferred supplier in many prestige venues across London.

WELCOME TO THE KHAADRAAS CLUB

Cooking the way our Mums taught us!

In response to the demand for truly authentic Parsee feasts, our 'Khaadraas Club' dinner is held every six weeks in our stunning Pradhan Room. When some of our regular non-Parsee customers found out, they too demanded to take part in the dinners, held every 5-6 weeks.

Come one, come all!

Three courses for only £25

Book at binay@cafespice.co.uk or call the restaurant!

15% OFF total bill for all Zoroastrians throughout the year.

Just mention PD when you call.

(Offer valid for up to six people, and cannot be used in conjunction with any other offers and discounts or special events.)
